A new booklet just published by the National Housing department in Washington lists the manufacturers of 53 lightweight aggregates, and heading the list in the No. 1 place is the National Perlite Co. of Campbell. The booklet is for the use of builders and contractors. A carload of perlite left this week for Texas where it is to be used for plaster, roof tiles, blocks and stucco. If you haven't seen this magical stuff, you should go take a look at it. It has to be felt to be believed.

★ ★ ★

Vandals, believed to be children, entered the new post office building Sunday evening and marred the finishd wall with colored chalk which cannot be removed because of the rough surface of the finish.

I'm going to have to move my office to the back of the shop pretty quick. I can't stand many more of the harrowing things that almost happen on Campbell Ave. Yesterday a car traveling at least 60 miles an hour missed a small child by inches. And did you see that little boy going dreamily down the center of the street in his wagon the other day? And did you see a single motorist stop and get him out of the way?

An editorial in the Los Gatos Mail-News urges the beginning of a drive for funds to build a hospital to serve the Los Gatos-Saratoga-Campbell area. The writer points out the desperate shortage of hospital beds in San Jose and the possible danger in emergency cases of having to drive so far. Doctors, too, he write, would benefit by not having to drive to San Jose two or three times a day. This might be an idea for the Chamber of Commerce to discuss.

Speaking of the Chamber, it was heart-warming to see the interest in the last meeting and to see so many of the newer business people present. With such a large membership whose interests all lie in the community, anything should be possible in the way of progress for Campbell. They were all a little stiff and strange yesterday but after another meeting or two when everyone is well acquainted, there should be some coordinated forceful results.

WOMEN'S SERVICE CLUB TO MEET

The Women's Service club of Campbell will hold its next meeting Wednesday, March 26, at the home of Mrs. Virginia Howard at 2:45 p.m. Co-hostesses will be Mesdames Yvonne Binley and L. Morris. Further plans for the coming tea in April will be discussed.

There will be a nursery for small children in the cabin of the Methodist church.

ORCHARD CITY GRANGE

Orchard City Grange met Mar. 11 with Worthy Master H. M. Shadle presiding. During the evening matters of interest to agriculture were discussed and a resolution was passed opposing the 2 a.m. closing of taverns.

William H. "Bill" Young spoke on the Greek situation and pled for U.S. help for Greece. Martin S. Walsh gave an interesting talk on early California towns and reasons for their names. It was announced by Mrs. Ida Skow that the Pomona Home Economics will meet in San Jose Grange hall on Friday, March 28, with a pot-luck dinner at 12:30 p.m. Orchard City Grange members are now participating in prepaid health care through the California Physician's Service.

CATHOLIC WOMEN ENTERTAIN

Members of the Los Gatos Catholic Circle were hostesses to the Santa Clara County National Council of Catholic Women recently in their club room which was beautifully decorated with spring blossoms. Father Sugre of Bellarmine and Father Curtiss of Los Gatos both spoke to the women.

Attending from St. Lucy's Women's club which is a member of the Council were Mrs. J. Smith, Mrs. S. Ridgeley, Mrs. M. Fields and Mrs. J. Souto.

Chamber of Commerce Begins Campaign for Bank

More than forty members of the Chamber of Commerce met for the monthly luncheon meeting at Wheeler's Orchard Creamery yesterday and enthusiastically signed a letter written to the American Trust Bank in San Francisco urging that a branch bank be established in Campbell for the convenience of residents. Ira Grim, chamber president, announced that Patrick Peabody, publisher of The Campbell Press, was making a personal appeal to bank officials in San Francisco today in conjunction with the letter.

Money was voted for the purchase of an automatic clock to start and stop the electric "Campbell" sign on the corner of Winchester and Campbell Ave. When the clock is installed the arrow will be removed.

Among the local problems discussed was the traffic congestion occasioned by the busses double parking on Campbell Ave. Mrs. Add Hall volunteered to see Joseph McKinnon, County Supervisor for this district, and request the painting of red strips along the curbing to be used by the busses only.

Also discussed and planned as a project for the future was the lighting of the Grammar School grounds in order that night ball games might be held during summer months. Lloyd Nelson pointed out that there are no recreational activities offered except the theater. Although he felt it was too late to plan for this summer, he was enhusiastic over the possibilities of forming an inter-city league.

The lights used on the Los Gatos field were paid for in two years, Nelson said, not by admissions but by voluntary contributions.

Treasurer Rachel Spradling reported that the group is now on a good financial basis with more than $800 in the treasury.

New Airline Service Inaugurated At Moffett

This veteran plane, long a favorite with airline travelers throughout the nation,has been especially modified for Southwest's high-speed, multiple-stop feeder service.

NOTICE

From time to time, salesmen selling a cartoon advertising service for various Texas firms have solicited the businessmen of this vicinity. It has come to our attention that most of these salesmen tell local merchants that this newspaper recommends and endorses the advertising service that is being sold. Some even go so far as to promise, without our knowledge, that editorial and news space will be given in the columns of this paper to the merchants who buy the service.

This newspaper wishes to make it thoroughly understood that we recommend NO advertising service, promotion, or campaign apart from that sold by the direct representative of this newspaper. Also, that we have not given our endorsement to any salesmen selling any such service. We have promised no space in our news or editorial columns to any salesman or firm who buys, sells or leases any advertiing service, apart from that sold directly from this office.

The advertising and editorial staff members of the Peabody Publications will, in the future carry identification, and it will be appreciated that if any question arises as to the identity of newspaper salesmen in this area, the person be asked to show his credential.

PATRICK H. PEABODY,
Publisher.

On Sunday, Mrs. Ella Lewis will celebrate her 94th birthday anniversary with her customary cheerfullness and interest. A patient for the past two years at the Spotswood Rest Home in Los Gatos, she will receive friends and relatives there to enjoy a birthday cake.

Although curtailed in her physical acivities, Mrs. Lewis is very active mentally and keenly interested in the events of the day, her friends and music which has been more than a hobby with her. As a trained musician she has brought pleasure all of her life to her friends and to herself.

Mrs. Lewis accompanied her husband to California from New York state in August of 1888 and has lived in the Santa Clara Valley ever since. Full of enthusiasm for ranch life in the valley and busy rearing her two chidren, she still found much time for friendships and outside interests.

Romberg In San Jose April 10

The heir-apparent of the great Victor Herbert, Sigmund Romberg, whose lovely melodies have been heard around the world, comes to San Jose for one performance on Thursday evening, April 10, at the Civic Auditorium, playing a program of favorite songs.

One of the most famous of all Romberg compositions is the robust, thrilling "Stout Hearted Men" from the operetta "New Moon." During the war "Rommy" re-wrote the original lyrics and turned the song over to the U.S. navy. All royalties accruing from the sale of the song automatically became the property of the U.S. Navy Relief Fund.

Probably very few composers enjoy playing music as does Sigmund Romberg. His home holds three grand pianos and a Hammond organ. When he is not on tour with his orchestra of 75 musicians and five lovely soloists, he usually spends a quiet evening at home with friends, where they frolic in a semi-classic jam session, with Romberg usually to be found at the Hammond organ.

When this musical troupe comes to town they will perform the works of Jerome Kern, George Gershwin, Cole Porter, Debussy, Bizet, Johann Strauss and Edvard Grieg.

Attaches of the box office at the auditorium announce a brisk sale of tickets for this special musical treat.

What's Your House Number?

What's everyone talking about these days in Campbell? Mail delivery, of course. Much is the conjecture as to how it will work and "should I keep my box, too?"

Posted in the lobby of the post office is a map with each lot in the area to be served plainly marked. Each person within the area should find the lot on which he lives and purchase the correct house number for it.

Ira Grim, postmaster, asks that this be done before April 1, when the delivery is to start. It will also be necessary for all householders to have mail receptacles in order that the postman will have a place to leave the mail.

More than 25 applications have been received for the two positions of carriers which will be necessary for the new service. Grim says that no appointments have been made as yet.

The map designating correct house numbers was drawn up for the post office by the County Planning Commission.

School Board Elections Set

May 16 has been set as the date for the annual school board election for Campbell Union High School and the four grammar schools in the community.

On each school board there is one expiring term with the exception of Campbell Grammar School for which two trustees will be elected. Finishing expired terms on that board are Lloyd Gardner and William Porter.

On the Campbell Union High School board, Ray Bishop's term of office expires while at Moreland School the retiring board member is Mrs. Leroy Anderson. Dr. W. R. Morgan's term expires at Union Grammar School as does that of W. Charles Sartorette at Cambrian.

Closing time for filing is April 16 and it is anticipated that some of the retiring board members will run for re-election.

On the election board for both Campbell schools are J. B. Collins, Mrs. Anna Pfeffer and Mrs. Elizabeth McBain.

Serving on the election board for Union School are Mrs. Frances Murphy, Mrs. Ruth Ervin and Mrs. Mary Root.

J. E. Wiesendanger, Mrs. Mamie Peyer and Mrs. Ethel E. Lipford will serve on the Moreland board.

Officiating at the election at Cambrian school will be Mrs. Grace Coombs, Mrs. Helen E. Door and Mrs. Anna K. James.

SAVING SEWING TIME

Short cuts to save time for the busy sewing mothers have been developed by Ethelwyn Dodson, extension specialist in clothing. Miss Dodson says several garments for one member of the family can be made at the same time. So can similar garments cut in different sizes for other members be made in this way.

She calls this applying factory methods to home sewing. Energy is saved, sewing time is shortened. The same quality workmanship of ready-made garments can be attained, too.

Miss Dodson has described these methods as they apply to home sewing in a circular of the Agricultural Extension Service. The name of it is Time-Saving Methods in Home Sewing.

This circular tells how to plan the work, alter patterns, develop skill, as well as applying factory methods of cutting time.

This circular is free. Call at the Extension office, 201 Post Office Bldg., San Jose.

ADAMS 4-H CLUB TO TOUR

Thirty boys and girls of the Adams 4-H club are planning a tour to the Grand National Junior Livestock Show at the Cow Palace in San Francisco, March 29 to April 3, according to Tom Roffinella, reporter of the Adams clubs located near Gilroy.

Transportation arrangements for the tour are being made by Jeff Parrish, John Roffinella and Mike Greco, leaders of the club. The exact date the group of young farmers and homemakers will make this trip has not been made.

Young Roffinella, reporting the last meeting of Adams club, states the next activity will be a community improvement project. This project will be painting mail boxes in the community. This will improve the community by making it possible for visitors to easily locate addresses. The improvement project will last over a period of several months.

COYOTE 4-H CLUB

Coyote 4-H club card party sponsored by the mothers of the club and held last week, proved to be a financial success, according to Don Kruse, president. Net receipts were over $70. Mrs. Kruse, Mrs. Roland Ramelli and Mrs. Joe Puppo were in charge of the party. This was the second annual card party the club has sponsored.

Kruse reports that one girl and five boys are planning to exhibit animals at the Grand National Junior Livestock Show at the Cow Palace on March 29 to April 3. The girl who will exhibit her Hereford steer is Phyllis Skelton. Don Kruse and Dwayne Skelton will show their fat Angus steers. Arlen Kruse, Paul and Burt Maleca will display fat hogs.

EDUCATIONAL FILMS

The Mission 4-H club members viewed two educational films at their regular meeting, according to Fielding Lundy, Jr., reporter, on March 7. The film shown by Brice Johnson of the Ralston Purina company was about agriculture subjects. One picture entitled "Young Poultry" showed the development of the chicken while the egg was hatching. The other film was about the dairy industry. The film taken at the University of Minnesota stressed the importance of the blood stream of the cow in making milk.

Following the meeting the club members were treated to a hot dog feed by Art Christopher, local orchardist and father of two of the club members. The hot dog feed came after a lively project discussion led by Fielding Lundy and John Swickard, club leaders. The project discussion was highlighted by the report of Arthur Lindstrom that his purebred Chester White, purchased from Grover C. Portlock of San Martin, had farrowed a litter of six pigs.

Boy Scouts Learn To Hunt 'Possum

By Dudley Herchbach

If you have never tried to catch a 'possum—without dogs— then read carefully while I describe the wrong way to do it.

Chances are you may know the right method but I hope you never had to learn the wrong one as I did—the hard way.

None of us scouts of Moreland Troop 36 knew how to do it the wrong way either until last Wednesday evening, when our Scoutmaster's truck nearly ran down one of those nocturnal creatures as we came home from scout meeting. Then we learned fast—in half an hour.

First we plunged down into a brushy canyon, flashlights in hand. Then, when we spotted the 'possum, we cut loose with the most blood-curdling yells we could muster. That was our first mistake, for the confounded thing started running—fast, too.

We chased him abut five miles—at least—and discovered to our dismay that he liked to climb very high trees! Howard Wynne, the bravest hunter(no one else wanted to touch the thing) then climbed the tree and pulled Mr. 'Possum loose—at the expense of ruining his scout uniform.

Then we discovered another thing about Mr. 'Possum—he had nice, long, white, sharp teeth—Howard dropped him fast.

Once again the merry chase began—but ended this time, for having profited by experience, Howard picked him up by the tail and we bore our quarry up to the road to show to our scoutmaster—and also to get a look at him ourselves! (the 'possum, I mean).

And now the climax. We had caught a 'possum. We had learned the wrong method all by ourselves—without the aid of our scoutmaster who did nothing but watch us and "laugh his head off." What now? To make a painful story short—we let him go!

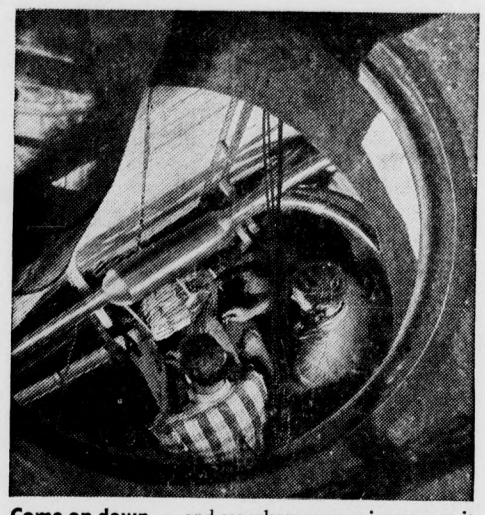
What goes on in a manhole?



Come on down . . . and see where your voice goes as it flashes across the city in a telephone call. For in most places now a major part of the voice arteries you use are underground . . . in a huge network of cables some of which are nearly three inches across and may carry up to 4242 individual wires.

Manholes are normally located at street intersections and they're used to install cable and to facilitate repairs when something goes wrong. The exact location of a break or defect can be spotted quickly with a device known as a Wheatstone Bridge. The "Men Working" signs you see usually mean that cable is being spliced by skilled workmen.

They're busy places, these manholes. During 1946 alone on the Pacific Coast we installed hundreds of miles of underground cable—more than 560,000 miles of individual wires—as just part of keeping pace with the West's tremendous growth. Yes, we are going ahead as rapidly as we can in bringing service to everyone who wants it—and a finer service than ever before.

An ever-improving telephone service at the least cost consistent with good wages and working conditions for our employees and a reasonable return to the thousands of people who have invested in the business.

Circus Dinner Huge Success

A gay carnival mood pervaded Monday evening's dinner at the Country Woman's club. Given in honor of "the men" the annual affair was considered one of the most successful ever held.

Elaborate decorations depicted the circus atmosphere and guests attended in either circus costumes or those of spectators. A lighted merry-go-round set the theme of the decorations which was carried out with gay clusters of balloons and life-size cut-outs of clowns and circus animals. Mrs. Harold Drummond, assisted by Miss Mary Lewis, was responsible for the decorations. For the tables they used small circus tents populated with miniature clowns and animals.

Lending a hilarious note to the dinner and the evening were the antics of four clowns who were revealed later to be Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Morgan, Frank Coombs and Budd Levenberg. Impromptu skits were given by the guests and later two ferocious beasts were presnted by G. Martin Allen, ringmaster. Taking part in the animal acts were George Jeffers and David Sanders. Jack Murdock gave an efficient performance as the circus barker and master of ceremonies.

Mrs. Ronnie Stoner won the first prize for her snake charmer costume.

In charge of the gala evening was Mrs. William Henley, assisted by Mesdames Eva Gratton, M. E. Carlson, J. W. Forward, Ralph Herring, Harold Drummond, E. J. Bohnett, F .A. Coombs, E. C. Price, G. Martin Allen, Jr., and Budd Levenberg.

Campbell Relays Scheduled Friday

The third annual Campbell High School Invitational Track and Field Relays will be held next Friday afternoon at the prep athletic plant here, Athletic Director Herb Hudson announced today.

First held in 1945, the annual carnival has caught on like wildfire, and interest really runs high when Santa Clara Valley Athletic League schools assemble on Campbell field for the ever-popular relays.

Competition this year will be in four classes—varsity, 130's, 120's and 110's. With five schools definitely entered, a total of sixteen events are scheduled, thirteen of which are track events.

High schools which have indicated they will send men to the cinder show are Santa Clara, Fremont of Sunnyvale, Gilroy, Mountain View and Campbell. Washington High of Centerville will not be able to attend, and Los Gatos is a doubtful starter.

The 1947 program will begin at 3 p.m. sharp with the Class A quarter-mile relay, and will wind up at 4:35 with the Class B medley relay. The three field events, high jump, broad jump and shot put will all begin at 3.

In regard to the field events, Hudson explains "each team will consist of four men—one in each classification, 1-A, 1-B, 1-C and 1-D. This is a little different than has been done in the past and will give each top man in his division a chance to compete. In the field events the aggregate score shall determine the places." Scoring will be on a 4-3-1 basis for first, second and third, respectively.

Team winners in 1945 and 1946, the Campbell Buccaneers will seek to capture their third consecutive Campbell Relay championship.

Santa Clara finished second both times.

COLLEGE GROUP MEETS

Last Sunday night, 12 members of the newly formed College Group of the Congregational church met at the home of Bill Smith on No. Winchester street. The discussion was led by Mr. Carlson.

Following the meeting refreshments were served and plans made for the next meeting, March 30, at the home of Donna Pannekoek.

A MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF WAR

How you can help YOUR ARMY DO ITS PART FOR PEACE

WITH the President's proposal for the discontinuance of Selective Service on March 31, America will rely on voluntary enlistments for the maintenance of the Regular Army at authorized strength.

In view of world conditions today, this is a step of the gravest importance to every American citizen. Never before in history has any nation raised and maintained a million-man army by the volunteer system alone. Our ideals, our belief in individual freedom, our safety and our duty to promote world peace — all are bound up in this decision.

This is your Army, and voluntary enlistment is your choice. It must not fail. With your help it will not fail. The Army must continue to provide adequate occupation forces overseas, to supply these forces, and to help in keeping America strong and secure.

Your help and understanding can do much to encourage a steady flow of 3-year voluntary enlistments, necessary to sound training and the efficient performance of the Army's task.

When you discuss this subject with your sons, brothers, husbands or friends who may be considering an Army career, bear in mind the advantages offered by a 3-year enlistment. Among them are the choice of branch of service and of overseas theater where openings exist, and the opportunity for thorough training in valuable skills.

A job in the new Regular Army compares favorably with the average in industry, and has more opportunities for promotion than most.

You can help by giving your respect and support to the man who enlists voluntarily — to do his part in carrying out your country's world-wide obligations to build a peace that will endure.

ROBERT P. PATTERSON
SECRETARY OF WAR

Campbell Court Notes

By Judge Blaine

After taking his girl home from a party a young law student found himself making a wrong turn. Sleepy and confused he ran his car off into an orchard and got stuck in the mud. Since it was already past midnight he decided to sleep in his car until daylight and then get help.

He got help sooner than expected. Deputies in one of the Sheriff's prowl cars stopped to investigate. Suddenly and rudely awakened the young man did the natural thing. He became angry and put up an argument. As a result he was arrested and booked for "drunk in county."

Next day he paid $10 for a $100 cash bond and told his story to an attorney. Although he had been drinking he was advised to plead not guilty. "Drunk in county" means drunk on public property. The property where he was found had been private. The student was much relieved when the District Attorney, having investigated into the facts, moved to dismiss.

Four men were in similar fix but in technically worse case. All had been drinking at a roadside bar. About midnight one suggested they find an eating place, but they were unable to start their car. A Highway Patrol car stopped to investigate, one man put up an argument, and all four were arrested for drunk in county. They had been found on public property!

About 2 o'clock that night the Campbell judge was awakened by an insistent phone call. A distressed but familiar voice said, "You know me. Four of us are in jail here, and some of us have to go to work in the morning early. We won't run away, and we'll pay our fines. If we send a taxi for a release, will you please let us out?"

Next day all four paid fines, but one proved to be a stranger, a retired railway engineer, who'd been visiting in Campbell and just happened to get an invitation to go along for some eats. He paid his fine with a laugh. He was philosophical.

Even a judge needs to be philosophical. When the Campbell judge isn't awakened by somebody in trouble at night he dreams about it!
